PREFACE.

In the Gentleman's Magazine, for August, 1862, there is a paper upon "The Trade Companies of Gateshead," by Mr. W. H. D. Longstaffe, in which he names the following seven Companies:—

- I.—Barkers and Tanners; incorporated 1557.
- II.—Weavers; charter confirmed in Elizabeth's reign.
- III.—Dyers, Fullers, Blacksmiths, Locksmiths, Cutlers, Joiners, and Carpenters; charter confirmed in 1594.
- IV.—Cordwainers; charter confirmed in 1602.
- V.—Drapers, Tailors, Mercers, Hardwaremen, Coopers, and Chandlers; common seal is dated 1595.
- VI.—Free-masons, Carvers, Stone-cutters, Sculptors, Brick-makers, Tilers, Brick-layers, Glaziers, Painter-stainers, Founders, Nailers, Pewterers, Mill-wrights, Saddles and Bridlers, Trunkmakers, and Distillers; charter confirmed in 1671.
- VII.—Grocers, Apothecaries, and Pipe-makers; incorporated 1676: charter ordered to be given up in 1678.

The records of the fifth of these Companies (the Drapers, Tailors, Mercers, Hardwaremen, Coopers, and Chandlers of Gateshead) is here printed. The manuscript book which contains these records is in size a foolscap folio, thirteen inches high, eight-and-a-half inches broad, and one-and-a-half inches thick, half-bound, containing two hundred and ten leaves of old paper. There are three kinds of paper, the water-marks of which are not dated, and the leaves are of three different sizes, suggesting that three books have recently been bound together.

The Charter of the Company is not given, but the Constitution and Byelaws are on leaves 6 to 8 and 12 to 27. The introduction to these Byelaws names the Charter granted to the Company by Cromwell in 1658, which Charter, Longstaffe says, "was not worth the parchment it was written on."

A "Copy of the Warrant given from the Lord Bishopp of Durham to the Company," in 1662, is on leaf 48.

Minutes, Orders, and Fines are promiscuously entered throughout the book—any blank space on the pages appears to have been used, irrespective of date. They have been brought together and placed in order.

The Accounts begin in the year 1655 and are continued down to 1830, in various forms. The earliest entries will be given in full, and a selection will be made from the later years in order to avoid wearisome repetition.

The Admissions of new Members to the Fellowship from 1659 to 1693 are on leaves 65 to 68 of the manuscript book, and those from 1684 to 1825 are on leaves 172 to 185; the names from 1684 to 1693 being twice entered.

The Enrolment of Apprentices seems to be complete from 1645 to 1819. The entries for the first thirteen years are thirty in number and the writing is very even, suggesting that they have been copied from some older list. The list given on leaves 185A to 209 (May, 1686, to February, 1819) repeats many of the entries previously given.

A list of the Names of Members for the year 1658 is given on leaves 9 and 10; for 1682, on leaf 5; for 1684, on leaf 4; and from 1731 to 1825, on leaves 2 and 3. Many of the Orders are signed by the Members present at the meeting; to save space these names are not printed in every case, but where the Order or Minute is important, or when a list of the Names has not been given for a few years, they are printed in full.

The Stewards from 1658 to 1850 are given on leaves 61 to 170. Three were appointed annually, with two Searchers and a Clerk.

There are rough lists of Names marked "Absent" or "Fined for Absence" which do not seem to be sufficiently important to be worth printing.

The volume is now in the Gateshead Public Library. It is printed here by permission of the Library Committee, to whom the transcriber tenders his thanks.
